Box I Observations where certain claims were found unsearchable (Continuation of Item 1 of first sheet)

This international report has not been established in respect of certain claims under Article 17(2)(a) for the following reasons:

1. ☐ Claim Nos.:
because they relate to subject matter not required to be searched by this Authority, namely:
2. ☐ Claim Nos.:
because they relate to parts of the international application that do not comply with the prescribed requirements to such an extent that no meaningful international search can be carried out, specifically:
3. ☐ Claim Nos.:
because they are dependent claims and are not drafted in accordance with the second and third sentences of Rule 6.4(a).

Box II Observations where unity of invention is lacking (Continuation of Item 2 of first sheet)

This International Searching Authority found multiple inventions in this international application, as follows:
Please See Continuation Sheet

1. ☒ As all required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers all searchable claims.
2. ☐ As all searchable claims could be searched without effort justifying an additional fee, this Authority did not invite payment of any additional fee.
3. ☐ As only some of the required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers only those claims for which fees were paid, specifically claims Nos.:
4. ☐ No required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant. Consequently, this international search report is restricted to the invention first mentioned in the claims; it is covered by claims Nos.:

Remark on Protest

Box III TEXT OF THE ABSTRACT (Continuation of Item 5 of the first sheet)

The technical features mentioned in the abstract do not include a reference sign between parentheses (PCT Rule 8.1(d)).

NEW ABSTRACT

Plastically deforming and radially expanding a first tubular member (155) within a wellbore (10) form a mono-diameter wellbore casing. A second tubular member (200) is then plastically deformed and radially expanded, overlapping the first tubular member (155). Then the second tubular (200) and the overlapped portion of the first tubular (155) are expanded.

BOX II. OBSERVATIONS WHERE UNITY OF INVENTION IS LACKING

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. In order for all inventions to be examined, the appropriate additional examination fees must be paid.

Group I, claim(s) 1-8, 13-45, 50-83, and 144-149, drawn to expanding a casing to more than one diameter.

Group II, claim(s) 9-12, 46-49, 85, 90, 106-108, and 122-124, drawn to a cone launcher.

Group III, claim(s) 113-118 and 130-139, drawn to deforming an overlap and then the rest of the tube.

Group IV, claim(s) 142 and 143, drawn to deforming to a desired strength.

Group V, claim(s) 84, 86-89, and 91-103, drawn to providing a lipped portion and an expanded portion.

Group VI, claim(s) 104, 105, 109-112, 119-121, and 125-129, drawn to expanding and deforming tube ends.

Group VII, claim(s) 140 and 141, drawn to a bridging a gap.

Group VIII, claim(s) 144-149 and 150, drawn to expanding with a specific initial diameter to thickness ratio.

The inventions listed as Groups I-VIII do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the only common feature shared by the groups is tube expansion, which is well known in the art and therefore cannot serve as a special technical feature linking the inventions. The groups lack unity because they each have a different special technical feature not shared with the other groups.
